Library Dreamer

Bridget Scott-Shupe

While you were sleeping
Grand castles fell
Lost forests sprawled
Demons left hell

While you were sleeping
Deep oceans churned
Mountains sprung up
Red letters spurned

While you were sleeping
Bandits did ride
Animals spoke
Good soldiers died

While you were sleeping
Proud houses wed
Books were burnt up
Orphans not fed

While you were sleeping
Through clarion call
The world moved around you
You slept through it all
